*The real safeguard
of democracy,
is education.*

— FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

IMMERSE YOURSELF IN THE REAL
FUNDAMENTALS OF OUR LEGAL SYSTEM.

DISCOVER HOW TO EFFECT
LASTING CHANGE.

"Democracy School taught me a new, empowering way to protect the environment, reclaiming local control."

—Mary Ann Kae

"I will never read a newspaper through my old lens again; enlightened on how the process works."

—Maria Ross

"Democracy School was a mind-blowing experience. During the School, I was forced to come to grips with the understanding that I really knew very little about the true structure of law that controls our activism. Democracy School is a must for everyone who seeks to be liberated from our defensive, after-the-fact reactive organizing strategies."

—Krishnaveni Gundu, '05, Calhoun County (TX) Resource Watch

The Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund's (CELDF) Democracy School is a stimulating and illuminating intensive seminar that teaches citizens and activists how to assert local control in order to protect the rights of their residents, their communities, and nature. We help citizens and activists reframe difficult single issue work (such as opposing toxic dumps, fracking, factory farms, etc.) to directly confront corporate control over their constitutional rights.
